Hand Wanted

I want a good hand for fencing, no other work and a summer job for the right man.
 10-11 C. H. Herring

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Rucker came Wednesday for a visit to home folks.

Miss Carrie Wheeler visited friends in Brunswick and attended the big dance.

Mrs. Robert Scott and daughter Mrs. Wm. E. Hill returned from K. City Wednesday after a few weeks visit to relatives.

Mrs. C. F. Lamkin is visiting in K. City for a few days.

It will not be so muddy Saturday if the roads are dragged today. Dragging is a dryer.

Hon. Jas. H. Whitecotton of Moberly was here to gather in a few more delegates who will favor him for one of the district delegates to the national convention.

Miss Virginia Wood came from college at Fayette to spend Easter with home folks. She was of course very sorry that the big snow prevented her return until the latter part of the week.

We heard a colored gent remark on the street yesterday, "Hit wood a ben turibil ef them wimmen folks had a bin lected and de bode busted up bekase de cheef resine. Sho one close call fo de schools."

Hon. Fred Lamb addressed the Women's Democratic Club at this city Tuesday on the subject of the League of Nations. There was a good crowd of both women and men and judge Lamb's remarks were well received. On account of lateness of the train on which he came his address was necessarily short.

Miss Almeria Miller came from her school Saturday to visit home folks and has been unable to reach the Shannondale neighborhood, snow and mud making roads impassable.

"I've got a right to rob my own home she whimpered."

Mary Pickford in "The Hoodlum"

Mary Pickford
 turns burglar for love in
"The Hoodlum"

Her successor to "Daddy Long Legs."

The robbery of her millionaire Grandfather's house to get some evidence which will right a great wrong doesn't seem a bit wrong to "the hoodlum." She had lived there so long and ruled everyone in it, including old Guthrie himself, with a rod of wrath that she considered she had a perfect right to break into it. Of course, she didn't know anything about electric burglar alarms.

Prominent Negro Dead

George W. Moorman, one of the most prominent among our colored citizens, died at the home of his mother with whom he made his home tho his headquarters were in St. Louis, of the after effects of a case of influenza which afflicted him during the Christmas holidays, or paresis, Sunday April 4.

He was a son of Aaron and Isabella Moorman, his mother, one brother and two sisters surviving. George was born in this city in October 1872 and all his life had the highest respect of negroes and whites alike.

Seventeen years ago he was appointed one of the mail clerks on the Wabash between St. Louis and Kansas City upon the recommendation of the congressman of the second district, and has held the position ever since, steadily advancing in rank and pay to the day of his death.

George was a dependable man, a bachelor and devoted to his mother and other relatives and never on any occasion forgot the training which inculcated good manners.

He was interred at the city cemetery Wednesday, an unusual attendance of relatives and friends marking the respect in which he was held. Rev. Wilkins conducted impressive services at the end of the earthly career of one of the kind of colored citizens the country can ill afford to lose.

On graduation from the Telegraph Dept., of the Chillicothe Business College last week, O. W. Green was placed at telegraph operator with the Oklahoma Pipe Line Co., at Ardmore, Oklahoma, at $145.00 per month initial salary.

Here's Another

Mary Pickford
 as tough street urchin in
"The Hoodlum"

The picture of a thousand laughs "Just Folks" like you and I envy the rich and pity the poor. But we needn't think either has a monopoly on the joys of life. In the opening reels of the picture we see how a very rich little girl plays and then we see how the same little rich girl enjoys the wild life of the slum children. And now we're guessing which is the better off. Make your own choice when you see it.

Judge Chas. H. Meyer was here yesterday and addressed the Democratic county convention. We will give some of the points he made in his speech next week.

Mrs. B. Hughes will give the Breckinridge dinner at 8 Louis Monday evening. Mr. Long is a candidate for U. S. Senator and likely will give expression to some of his views, those particularly pertaining to matters on which he had been called to express himself.

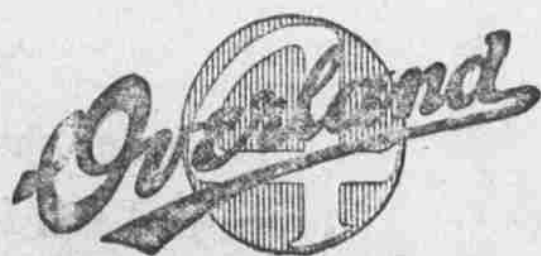

A Year's Abuse In 7 Days

All Light Car Road
 Records Smashed

At Indianapolis recently an Overland 4 stock car was driven 5,452 miles continuously in seven days and nights, over frozen country roads.

This is an average of 778 miles per day—more than the distance between Toledo and New York City. This is another tribute to the cushioning effect of Triplex Springs and the quality of material in Overland 4.
